

WARD CAUCUSES HELD

Democrats Choose Delegates to County Convention.

FIRST INSTRUCT FOR LEAHY

And Endorses H. W. Stewart for Delegate at Large.

The Democrats held ward caucuses yesterday afternoon in all the wards except the Fifth, to choose delegates from each ward to the county convention, which meets Saturday. The county convention is called to elect delegates to the congressional convention at Great Bend, the state nominating convention at Fort Scott and the state national delegate convention in this city. Tammany seems to have had its own in every ward except the Fourth. The Democrats of the Fifth ward, if there are any in that ward, probably acted on the presumption that it was of no use to spend time and effort to organize for a hopeless contest. So far as could be learned last night, no caucus was held in the Fifth ward. A reporter for the Eagle hunted that part of town over and no one knew of a caucus or any other kind of a political meeting.

The caucus in the First ward adopted resolutions favoring Dave Leahy's candidacy for secretary of state, favoring J. G. Johnson's re-election as chairman of the Democratic national committee, and launched a boom for Harry Stewart as delegate-at-large from Kansas to the national convention. The resolutions follow:

"Resolved, That as fellow-citizens and fellow Democrats with Mr. David D. Leahy it affords us gratification to attest to his virtues as a citizen and as a man to efficiently perform the duties of any official station to which he may aspire and be chosen, and for these reasons we cordially and heartily endorse his candidacy for nomination for the honorable and responsible position of secretary of state of Kansas by the state convention. To this end we request the delegates from the First ward to the county convention to give expression to the sentiment and wishes herein set forth in that body and to urge similar action by the convention in Mr. Leahy's behalf.

"Resolved, That we approve the candidacy of our fellow-citizen, Harry W. Stewart, for delegate from the state at large to the national Democratic convention, and request our delegates to the county convention to support his nomination by that body to the state convention to be held in this city, for the position named.

"As Democrats we, citizens of the First ward of the peaceful city of Wichita, appreciate the honor that has been conferred upon our distinguished fellow-citizen of Kansas, the Honorable J. G. Johnson, by the national Democratic committee, in placing in his hands the management of the committee's business affairs, and in large measure the interests of the party at large, and congratulate him and the national committee upon the very wise and efficient manner in which he has performed the arduous labors devolved upon him. In view of Mr. Johnson's distinguished services as national committee-man, we respectfully request our delegates to that position by the state convention, and to that end we request our delegates to the county convention to promote our wishes in this respect through appropriate action by that body."

DEBATE

FAIRMOUNT AGAINST WINFIELD.

8:30 Time For College Students at Crawford Opera.

Tonight at the Crawford opera house will occur one of the most interesting events that will have happened in the annals of Wichita colleges. This event will be the debate between the Fairmount college and Winfield college. The debating teams will discuss a question in which persons of every nationality are interested, a question which is attracting the attention of the press the world over and one which has been the subject of innumerable remarks in the different churches of the United States. It is stated thus: "Resolved, That Great Britain is justified in the present war in the Transvaal." As war in South Africa has progressed, bringing successes and reverses to the different armies, the people of this country have become more and more interested and are now wondering what the outcome will be. Every American in thinking of this question looks back over the period in which this nation had her struggles with Great Britain and is inclined to sympathize with Kruger and his people. While the South African affair is not a parallel case, it is one which a college debate cannot avoid.

The Winfield debaters have chosen the negative side of the question, thus giving Fairmount the affirmative side and allowing her to open the debate. Both teams have been doing an immense amount of work on this question and it will be interesting to note the different points brought out during the evening. Another thing which makes this event interesting is that it is the third annual debate, and as Winfield captured the first one, which was held in this city in '98, and Fairmount the one held in Winfield last year, people are beginning to wonder who will get the third one. More interest has been shown in this debate than has been shown in any college affair here before this time. Inter-collegiate debate is strictly a modern affair and more enthusiasm is being shown in this line of work among the students of various colleges than ever before.

The Southwest Kansas college debaters are as follows: Winfield—Miss Bernham and Miss Hales. The Winfield delegation will come in this morning at 11:30 over the Santa Fe, and will be met at the depot by a committee of Fairmount students. The managing committee has arranged for the Winfield people to occupy the south side of the opera house, and the Fairmount contingent will all the north side. This will be a night of college spirit, college yells, and one of the pleasing sights will be to see the young ladies bedecked in the bright colors of their college. The Fairmount colors are black and yellow, but yellow, alone, will be very much in evidence. After the debate the Fairmount students will give Winfield people a reception in the parlors of the Plymouth Congregational church. This reception is not only for the Southwest Kansas college delegation and its friends but for other college students as well.

The Fairmount debaters are Harold Morrison, Mr. Charles Isely, Miss Anna Jones. While this part of college work is comparatively new to them, their friends are confident that they will present their side of the question in an able manner. The judges of the debate are Kansas men and are from neighboring districts. Professor Butcher and Attorney Woods are of the district court of Sedgewick county for various misdeeds, is again in trouble. This time she is wanted for robbing a white man of $50. Pinky knew that it would not do to stay here long after she robbed the man, so she packed her clothes and started for Hutchinson. Harry Sutton got wind of the fact and started after Pinky to catch her and her stolen dollars. The man was caught in Hutchinson and was put in jail, but the girls could not be located. Detective Sutton, with Marshall Hedden, searched the town, but could get no further trace of Pinky. The stolen money where she carried her cigarettes when she went to the reformatorium. Upon her former visit to Hutchinson, after explaining to her that the school, which is an excellent one in other respects, had no provision for handling females, the board of managers gave Pinky "ready-made" diplomas, and dismissed her.

PINKY DUNN IN TROUBLE

Robbed a White Man of Over Seven Hundred Dollars.

Pinky Dunn, the "ding" maid who became known to fame by being awarded a free scholarship in the Hutchinson reformatorium by the district court of Sedgewick county for various misdeeds, is again in trouble. This time she is wanted for robbing a white man of $50. Pinky knew that it would not do to stay here long after she robbed the man, so she packed her clothes and started for Hutchinson. Harry Sutton got wind of the fact and started after Pinky to catch her and her stolen dollars. The man was caught in Hutchinson and was put in jail, but the girls could not be located. BIG DEAL IS CLOSED

Jean - Hurst - Redfern Sell Branch Houses

TO KIRSHBRAUM & SONS

Of Omaha Buy the Wichita Plant.

The Jean-Hurst-Redfern Produce company yesterday sold their business in this city to Kirshbraum & Sons, a big wholesale and distributing firm of Omaha. Neb. The new firm will take charge of the business at once. Their main house is located at Omaha, and they have branches at Downs and at Goffa, Kan., and at Auburn, Neb. They will continue the business at this point on probably a larger scale than it has been conducted heretofore, though it was already one of the largest concerns in the state. They will also occupy the same building on St. Francis avenue.

In addition to the sale of the Wichita house, the Jean-Hurst-Redfern people have sold their branch at Hutchinson to Hascall & Bosworth, and the Winfield house to J. P. Baden. Mr. Hurst, who was here yesterday, told a reporter for the Eagle that their reason for selling was on account of the competition in this territory. He then added: "These three houses have brought us into more or less competitive contact with some of our best friends, and at times the competition was rather severe. I don't mean to say that our houses in this section never made money, as they always have, but they are too far from our main office in Springfield to be easily managed." When asked as to the volume of business done at this point Mr. Hurst said: "I cannot tell exactly, but I should judge it to be in the neighborhood of $300,000 per year."

Mr. Kirshbraum, who was present, then said his firm would certainly not reduce the amount of the business and would try to increase it.

The changing hands of this business will in no way affect the competition at this point, and the farmers in this section will continue to get good prices for their produce, as they have in the past.

PASSED THE CENTURY MARK

Joseph Rose, 103 Years Old, on His Way to Guthrie.

Joseph Rose and wife, typical backwoods people from the state of Indiana, passed through Wichita yesterday en route to Guthrie, where they go to spend their few remaining days. Mr. Rose is 103 years old and Mrs. Rose 81. They were traveling alone, but it was about as much as they could do. They remained over here from one train to another and were objects of much curiosity at the Santa Fe depot. The old man was helped into a rickety condition for want of care, but those who saw him looked on him and considered the many years he had trod the earth, and revered him. He was too old to talk, but he chewed incessantly on a large cud of tobacco and looked happy.

Mrs. Rose was more agile than her husband, and got around very well. She said to a reporter for the Eagle:

"We are on our way from Indiana to Guthrie, where we have a son, Enoch. We go to live with him. We lived in Indiana, seven miles east of Princeton, and lived there right up until fifty years. Joseph is a democrat. Has been a democrat all his life. He'd be a voter for Andrew Jackson, if he had a chance."

"How does he favor Dewey?" queried the reporter.

"Dewey? Who's Dewey? Never heard of him in Indiana."

"He's the great naval hero, who's being talked of for the democratic nomination for president instead of Bryan?"

"Well, I don't know him. Guess Joseph'll vote for Bryan."

Mrs. Rose then sat between her teeth like tobacco. They were put on the 5:40 train and sent to Guthrie last night. When the train pulled out L. R. Delaney said: "Oh, they're never too old to ride on the Santa Fe."

SNOWFALL IN RUSH COUNTY

Judge Renner Says About Five Inches Fell and Drifted.

Judge John Renner of Rush county, who was here yesterday engaged in business in the district court, and who is one of the prominent cattle men of Rush county, says that there is a heavy snowfall west of Rice county, and in his county there is about 5 inches, covering the ground and somewhat drifted. Tuesday, he says, was a very bad and stormy day for cattle, and some of his own cattle, which were ranging upon the open prairie wandered that afternoon as far as five miles away from their feeding ground. The cold was severe, although the snowfall was a very fine protection for the wheat. He says that present wheat prospects in his locality are very excellent, but says the crop is not as much advanced in his county as in Rice, Reno and Sedgewick counties, through which he passed on his way to this city. Judge Renner's last visit to Wichita was the occasion of the state fair and address by William J. Bryan, and since that time he says he sees a wonderful change in Wichita.

FOUR HUGE HAMS

Dold Packing Co. Will be Represented

The Dold Packing company will be represented at a street fair which will be held in Monroe, La., April 25 and 27. A large customer of the plant who is in business at Monroe wishes to make a large meat display and called upon the Dold Packing company to aid him. As the deal is consummated in declaring that "it is Dold's it's the best," nothing was too good for him. John Perrier, the foreman of the jobbing department, has manufactured some immense imitation hams and bacon for exhibition purposes. The hams measure 42 inches around one way and 4 inches the other. The bacon is 12 inches long and 12 inches wide. Of course the canvas coverings are not filled with meat but with sawdust. If the hams were real they would weigh fully 75 pounds. The coverings are the same as those used on the famous "Perfection" brands and the display is expected to attract much attention. There will be four of the huge hams and six pieces of bacon.

MRS. HILL SUES FOR DIVORCE

Says Husband and Father-in-Law Make Life Miserable.

Mrs. Minnie Hill is suing her husband, Albert Hill, for divorce. Her petition was filed yesterday by Stanley & Stanley, and alleges, among other things, that Mr. Hill has been very cruel and abusive towards her. She says that he has cursed her and at one time actually raised his arm to strike her. She further says that, contrary to her wishes, and in spite of her protestations, her husband kept his father at their home, and he also abused and cursed her. The two men, she says, have, by their cruel and harsh language, rendered her very unhappy and caused her great anguish. Mr. and Mrs. Hill have no small children. The wife asks the custody and care of the children.

NEXT IS AT ABILENE

Convention of Undertakers Adjourned Last Night.

ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Mr. Gill of Wichita Goes to National Convention.

Yesterday was the last day of the state convention of the funeral directors. The morning session was entirely taken up by Professor Hebenschuh in lecturing and demonstrating. In the afternoon the convention was entertained by Mr. V. Becker of the Omaha Casket company. This gentleman is quite a musician and afforded his listeners the pleasure of hearing a cornet solo minus the cornet. He places his hands to his mouth in a trumpet shape and with his voice imitates the tones of a cornet perfectly. The undertakers gave him a hearty encore and he responded with another solo better than the first. Miss Montie Dunbar of this city then rendered a vocal solo and responded to an enthusiastic encore. The election of officers and delegates to the national convention was then in order. The following officers were chosen: President, J. M. Doyle, Belleville; vice president, Charles W. Berg, Salina; secretary, L. M. Penwell, Topeka; treasurer, Mrs. M. L. Gates, Rosedale; sergeant-at-arms, C. H. Nurlifus, Newton. The delegates to the national convention are: Joseph S. Johnson, Oswatomie; B. F. Bracken, Beloit; I. W. Gill, Wichita; C. W. Goodlander, Fort Scott; alternates, W. B. Raymond, Kansas City; L. M. Penwell, Topeka; W. S. Twist, Bonner Springs; J. W. Edwards, Newton.

The next meeting will be held at Abilene, June 3, 1901.

There was quite a fight between Salina and Newton for the convention and it was given to Abilene as a compromise. The only other business done was to raise the salary of the secretary from $5 to $8 a year.

In the evening Professor Hebenschuh continued his lecture in one of the rooms at the Manhattan hotel and nearly every undertaker in town crowded into the room to listen to the professor's instruction.

Last night Dr. Swan, secretary of the state board of health, arrived in the city. He and Dr. J. M. Minick of this city, also a member of the state board of health, together with five undertakers, who are appointed by the state board, will constitute an examining board, the duties of which are to grant licenses to embalmers. The men who have been appointed are: H. W. Gates, Rosedale, chairman; J. B. Hinborn, Hiawatha, secretary; J. M. Doyle, Belleville; George S. Upham, Abilene; J. T. Baker, Topeka.

At 9 o'clock this morning they will hold the examination. Up to 6 o'clock last night 107 of the undertakers had made application to take the examination. It is the object of the association to improve the knowledge of its members and to place their calling on this examination basis.

MARRIAGE BY TELEGRAPH

George Waggoner a Witness in an Unusual Ceremony.

Yesterday George Waggoner, day chief at the Western Union telegraph offices here, was one of the legal witnesses in a wedding by wire. Mr. Andrew A. Candell of Kansas City, Kan., was married to Miss Pamela Candell of Mulhall, O. T., at high noon. The couple were married by Rev. A. H. Linder of Kansas City. The question was asked over the wire by Mr. Waggoner here as witness, and Mrs. Candell wrote her answers at Mulhall, which were telegraphed back. It took about an hour.

WATER IS STILL HIGH

Has Backed Far Up Into the Little River Channel.

The water in the Arkansas river is still quite high. Today it was still about the six foot mark and showed little signs of falling. The water has backed up in the Little river until it is even with the dam on Central avenue. The water has overflowed the banks on the west side of the river but has caused no damage. The channel of the river through the city is now so narrow that the water rises considerably higher than of old.

SELL COMMUTATION TICKETS

Hunters Can Go to Cairo at Reduced Rates.

The Santa Fe is now selling commutation tickets to Cairo, the well known duck shooting grounds. The lake near Cairo is owned by a number of Wichitans on an other travel between this city and Cairo is heavy. The regular round-trip fare is $1.50, but commutation tickets, good for five round-trips, are sold for $7.50, thus materially reducing the cost of the trip.

TO SEE WICHITA

Visiting Undertakers Will be Driven About the City.

The local undertakers wish to give the drive about the city this afternoon to show them what a town Wichita is. There are about 30 in the party, and it will be hard to provide accommodations for all. The local undertakers would esteem it as a favor if some of the citizens would place their carriages at their disposal. It is proposed to leave the Manhattan hotel about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.
